The National Center for Life and Liberty is a nonprofit legal ministry dedicated to protecting and defending the Bible-based values upon which our nation was founded. Homeschool Center—an outreach of the NCLL—was created to be a legal help and resource to homeschool families. Protecting. Equipping. Serving. HC is a fresh approach to homeschooling legal help. For more information and to join, visit <http://homeschool.ncll.org/>. Legal challenges and questions will come—let the NCLL be there to help you when they do.

The following is an explanation of homeschool law for Iowa along with references to additional and more exhaustive resources.

Dear Homeschool Family,

More and more parents across the country and around the world are exercising the choice to educate their children at home. At the National Center for Life and Liberty, we are committed to defending the fundamental rights of parents to direct and control the upbringing of their children, which includes protecting and defending their right to homeschool. We are also committed to providing our members with help and encouragement so they can homeschool legally and with excellence. When families join the Homeschool Center at the National Center for Life and Liberty, they can rest assured that we will be there if and when they have legal questions about their homeschooling. Our members have access to summaries of homeschool state laws as well as an attorney to assist them with all legal compliance questions. We also provide the following services:

- Guidance on pursuing sports or extracurricular activities with the public school
- Guidance on seeking special needs services from the public school
- Pro bono legal representation in litigation if we determine the issue will advance homeschool liberty
- Assistance in college, trade school, and financial application eligibility questions
- Assistance with social security benefit eligibility for homeschoolers
- Advising in social service issues that are related to homeschool issues

The ministry of the NCLL's Homeschool Center is exactly that—a ministry. We are here to serve you and defend your right to raise and educate your children. In keeping with this mission, the NCLL does everything possible to keep costs low so that we can serve homeschoolers all across the country. Also, while other organizations require an “application” process and require you to follow narrowly defined rules, the NCLL Homeschool Center invites you only to complete a simple “registration” process in order to join. We do not want to control your homeschooling efforts; we are here to provide you with information, encouragement, and support as you diligently homeschool your children.

We are called of God and committed to serving you and your family! Please let us know how we can be of assistance to you.

Thank you for the privilege,

Attorney David C. Gibbs III

IOWA HOMESCHOOL LEGAL REQUIREMENTS

Iowa residents have the right to homeschool their children. The state, however, does place certain requirements that you, as a parent or guardian, need to follow. Three different options are available.

THE THREE OPTIONS ARE:

- Option 1: Using a competent private instructor (CPI Option 1)
- Option 2: Using a non-licensed, competent private instructor (CPI option 2)
- Option 3: Using an independent private instructor (IPI) (the more “traditional” option for homeschooling)

OPTION 1

Using a Competent Private Instructor (CPI Option 1)

Parents may homeschool using this option under the supervision of a licensed teacher.

COMPULSORY ATTENDANCE

Compulsory attendance applies to children who are six years old by September 15 and younger than sixteen.

SOURCES OF LAW

Iowa Code 299.1 & 299.8

TEACHER QUALIFICATIONS

Teachers must be licensed.

REPORTING/REGISTRATION

The parent or guardian of an enrolled student must submit a Form A to the district by September 1 of the year of enrollment as well as evidence of immunizations under Iowa Code § 139A.8.

RECORD KEEPING

Keep records as required to demonstrate compliance.

REQUIRED SUBJECTS, DAYS OF ATTENDANCE, AND OTHER REQUIREMENTS

Private instruction must be provided on a daily basis for at least 148 days during a school year, to be met by attendance for at least thirty-seven days each school quarter by or under the supervision of a licensed practitioner in the manner provided under section 299A.2.

REQUIRED TESTING/ASSESSMENTS

Students must be monitored for progress by the supervising teacher. The district should provide optional assessments at no cost and without requiring dual enrollment.

OPTION 2

Using a non-licensed Competent Private Instructor (CPI option 2)

Parents may homeschool using this option under the supervision of a non-licensed teacher.

COMPULSORY ATTENDANCE

Compulsory attendance applies to children who are six years old by September 15 and younger than sixteen.

SOURCES OF LAW

Iowa Code 299.1 & 299.8

TEACHER QUALIFICATIONS

A teaching license is NOT required.

REPORTING/REGISTRATION

The parent or guardian of a student enrolled may, but is not required to, submit a Form A to the district by September 1 of the year of enrollment. The parent or guardian MAY submit evidence of immunizations under Iowa Code § 139A.8. Form A is required for dual enrollment, and an annual assessment is also required.

RECORD KEEPING

Keep records as required to demonstrate compliance.

REQUIRED SUBJECTS, DAYS OF ATTENDANCE, AND OTHER REQUIREMENTS

Private instruction must be provided on a daily basis for at least 148 days during a school year, to be met by attendance for at least thirty-seven days each school quarter by or under the supervision of a person under 299A.3, which results in the student making adequate progress.

REQUIRED TESTING/ASSESSMENTS

Students must be monitored for progress by the supervising teacher. The district should provide optional assessments at no cost and without requiring dual enrollment.

OPTION 3

Using an Independent Private Instructor (IPI)

This is the more traditional approach to homeschooling, where parents are teaching their children.

COMPULSORY ATTENDANCE

Compulsory attendance applies to children who are six years old by September 15 and younger than sixteen.

SOURCES OF LAW

Iowa Code 299.1 & 299.8

TEACHER QUALIFICATIONS

A teaching license is NOT required.

REPORTING/REGISTRATION

The parent or guardian of a student enrolled should provide, upon written request from the superintendent in the district of residence or the director of the department of education, a report identifying the primary instructor, location, name of the authority responsible for the independent instruction, and the names of the students enrolled. Iowa Code § 299A.1 (2)(b)(6).

RECORD KEEPING

Keep records as required to demonstrate compliance.

REQUIRED SUBJECTS, DAYS OF ATTENDANCE, AND OTHER REQUIREMENTS

Instruction should meet the following criteria: 1) need not be accredited; 2) for not more than four unrelated students; 3) charges no tuition or fees or provides remuneration; 4) has private or religious-based instruction as its primary purpose; 5) teaches mathematics, reading and language arts, science, and social studies; 6) provides reports on request; 7) is not nonpublic school or CPI; 8) is exempt from all state statutes/rules except as otherwise provided in chapter 299 and 299A. See Iowa Code § 299A.1 (2) (b).

REQUIRED TESTING/ASSESSMENTS

Students are not required to be assessed annually. See Iowa Code § 299A.1 (2)(b). If requested and with advanced notice to the district, the district will provide courtesy standardized testing at no cost.

Other options allowed under the statute include homeschool assistance programs (HSAP) and non-accredited nonpublic schools. See link below for more information.

WHEN LEGAL CHALLENGES PRESENT THEMSELVES:

- 1 Calmly learn and follow your state’s laws. State summaries are available at our website, and we are always available to answer your questions.
- 2 As you teach your children at home, know that you’re a “walking advertisement” for homeschooling. Our relatives, neighbors, and others we encounter are watching. It’s a good idea to watch your outside activities during school hours. Try to share some homeschool highlights with your relatives so they might be won over. Also, avoid disciplining your child in public, because understanding of what is appropriate varies.
- 3 Leaving children at home alone is always risky—especially if you frequently leave older children home alone with younger children. Is there an appropriate age when it is fine to leave them alone? Consider calling your local social services agency to ask its opinion.

IF YOU RECEIVE A PHONE CALL:

- 1 If a homeschooler receives a phone call from someone representing himself as a school or social services authority, never give information over the phone! Make it your goal to get information from the caller. Ask what has prompted this call, the caller’s name, telephone number, title, and the agency he represents. Give yourself time to calm down and consider the request. Tell the caller that you will either get back to him or that your attorney will get back to him. Above everything, keep calm, as this initial call can set the tone for the entire encounter.
- 2 If the caller wishes to arrange a meeting and you agree to meet, allow yourself plenty of calendar time between the day of the call and the day of a future meeting. You will want to decide on a strategy and/or consult an attorney. If you agree to meet, arrange to meet in the official’s office and definitely not in your home.

IF YOU RECEIVE A LETTER IN THE MAIL

- 1 Read the letter slowly and carefully. Make sure that you know what is being asked of you, and take the time to discern who is asking. If the request is clear and unambiguous (such as asking for a copy of a birth certificate) and the law clearly specifies that it is required, it may be best to comply. Before supplying any information, either by mail or in person, verify the authenticity of the person and the agency making the request as well as the necessity of the information.
- 2 If the request is at all questionable, take time to study the issue and consult your attorney. If it means time, write or call the sender to say that you'll need more time.
- 3 Remember, if you mail anything or bring anything to an official's office, keep copies of what you mailed or brought for your files. If you decide to mail any items, mail them return-receipt requested. This documentation from the Post Office means you will receive proof that the letter you sent was signed for and received.
- 4 An electronic or e-mail notification is not sufficient legal notice of a legal challenge. Do not reply to an electronic notification of a legal challenge without seeking legal advice.

IF YOU RECEIVE A VISITOR AT THE DOOR

- 1 First, you are entitled to know the reason for any visit. The visitor may tell you he does not have to tell you the reason, or he may tell you that he needs to come inside of your home to talk to you. Neither claim is true! Government officials are required to tell you the specific allegations that led to their visit.

- 2 Be polite and ask for a business card or an ID badge. If the visitor wants to enter your home, ask if he has a search warrant. Without a warrant, he has no legal authority to enter your home. Getting a warrant is not an easy task for a government official. The official will have to demonstrate to a judge that he has “probable cause” to believe that either (1) a crime has been committed or that (2) some other compelling reason exists for the agency to enter your home to investigate. A warrant requires much more than an anonymous tip or mere suspicion. Remember—no warrant, no entry.
- 3 Be calm! If you have a local lawyer or are a member of the Homeschool Center, call your attorney on the phone while the visitor is still at your door. Then, hand the phone over to the visitor and have your attorney do the talking for you.
- 4 Be respectful to the visitor, but also respect yourself and your family. If the visitor insists on seeing your children, bring the children outside the door. Allowing an official inside gives him too great of an opportunity to go on a “fishing expedition.” The visitor may request immediate answers to one or more questions, but tell him that you will speak to him only after you have consulted with your legal counsel.
- 5 The visitor may threaten to obtain a warrant. Don’t be frightened by this. Of course you will fully cooperate if he returns and shows you the warrant, but chances are that he is merely trying to frighten you. Don’t be frightened, but seek legal counsel immediately.
